This Lad Attempts To Get Eggs At Source Of Supply

Raymond Lyons, who recently celebrated his second birthday at the Harry Greenwalt home where he lives, staged something new in the way of economy.

Mrs. Greenwalt is in the habit of tucking a note in his romper's pocket and sending him to the grocery's around the corner. The other day a dozen eggs were needed and Raymond started out alright with his little red wagon.

Time passed and neither boy nor eggs showed up, so Mrs. Greenwalt investigated and she found he hadn't been seen at the store. A commotion in a neighbor's chicken yard caused her to look there.

Raymond was pulling the feathers out of a setting turkey hen in an endeavor to get it off the nest.

"Get fresh eggs," he cried, as he saw Mrs. Greenwalt look through the door.

LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL FINISHES LAST IN TRACK CONTEST

Glendale Athletes Make Poor Showing in Annual Meet of Central League

By HOWARD M'GILLIS
Sports Editor The Evening News

Winning but four digits in the annual Central league track and field meet held Saturday afternoon at Patterson field, Occidental college, Glendale High school's cinder path representatives copped the "booby" prize of the circuit, their nearest rivals being the South Pasadena squad, which scored nine points.

The meet was won by Monrovia high, which team annexed a total of 43 points. Next in order were Covina 34, Franklin 20, Alhambra 19, Citrus Union 14.

The poor showing of the locals was entirely unexpected, as their previous showing in the Burbank-Owensmouth meet indicated that they would grab at least twenty points in the Central league classic. Stage fright seems to be the boys' only alibi, it having been the first big match in which several of them had ever participated.

The Red and Black athletes who managed to place in their events were Boehm, who took second in the pole vault, and Sullivan, who finished fourth in the 440-yard dash. In the latter event the time of the winner was more than a full second slower than that made by Sullivan at Burbank last week. The summary:

How It Happened
100-yard dash—Lee (Franklin), first; Shaw (Monrovia), second; Roberts (Citrus), third; Rambeau (Alhambra), fourth. Time 10 2-5.

220-yard dash—Lee (Franklin), first; Roberts (Citrus), second; Rambeau (Alhambra), third; Shaw (Monrovia), fourth. Time, 23 2-5.

440-yard dash—Shaw (Monrovia), first; Pollard (Covina), second; Morey (Covina), third; Sullivan (Glendale), fourth. Time 53 2-5.

880-yard run—King (Covina), first; Cypher (Monrovia), second; Linden (Citrus), third; Pruitt (Franklin), fourth. Time, 2m, 8 2-5.

1200-yard high hurdles—Shaw (Monrovia), first; Shaver (Covina), second; Jones (Alhambra), third; Olsen (Monrovia), fourth. Time, 16 4-5.

220-yard low hurdles—Shaw (Monrovia), first; Sloan (Covina), second; Shaver (Covina), third; Miller (Franklin), fourth. Time, 27 1-5.

Mrs. H. G. Hahn Tells of Work in Armenia

Mrs. H. G. Hahn of El Monte, who spent a year and a half in the famine districts of Armenia with the Near East Relief, was a most interesting speaker at the Sunday morning service at the Casa Verdugo Methodist church. Mrs. Hahn, as Miss Mabel Farrington, was a member of the first relief expedition that went to Europe after the signing of the armistice. The party numbered 250 and of these thirty, in which she was included, went directly to Armenia.

Mrs. Hahn is a fluent speaker, and gave an interesting account of conditions that came under her own personal observation, from the time of her arrival, until she left. Her work was among the children's hospitals and orphanages, rescue homes and refugee camps. She told of the wonderful success of the industrial homes and schools where materials are almost unobtainable and the hundreds begging for admission where every room available is overflowed.

Mrs. Hahn witnessed many tragic scenes during her sojourn there, but is both willing and anxious to return to relief work.

Mrs. Russell returned from a walk about the hour of 5:30 p. m. to find that her friends had taken possession of the house and were ready to serve a delicious hot dinner. Mr. Russell returned home a short time later, and entered, what appeared to be an unlighted house, and the lights being switched on suddenly, disclosed a large party, seated at dinner, waiting for him. Music and games added to the pleasure of the evening.

No Disorders of Any Kind Reported; Conference of Committee Under Way

Following is a resume of the national coal strike as received today by The Glendale Evening News over its International News Service leased wire:

The national coal strike of 600,000 bituminous and anthracite miners swung into its full significance today. As Saturday and Sunday were holidays, it could not be determined until today whether the coal strike order had been obeyed by all the union men and was 100 per cent effective.

President John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers of America, testifying before the house labor committee in Washington, proposed immediate nationalization of the American coal industry.

First Break Reported
The first break in the ranks of non-union miners was reported from northern West Virginia, where 15,000 non-organized men quit work.

In southern West Virginia and in central Pennsylvania the non-union miners were still in operation. No disorders of any kind have yet been reported and the union officials have warned the men against violence.

Union officials declared that the men are presenting a solid front and will fight it out along the present line no matter how long it takes. Every anthracite colliery in the three districts of Pennsylvania is idle.

First Conference
The first expression of fear that political agitators may attempt to make capital of the strike came out of the anthracite fields.

Another conference of the anthracite wage scale committee and a committee of operators was scheduled for this afternoon in New York City, where the miners are still presenting data to support their demands for a 30 per cent wage increase for contract labor and $1 a day for day labor.

Says Work of God Cannot Be Measured By Human Yardstick

"The Automatic Life" was the subject of the sermon yesterday morning at the Presbyterian church. The prophet Zachariah was shown in a vision a great gold lampstand which bore seven lamps. "Automatically from two living olive trees on either side the precious oil flowed through golden pipes to each lamp. The oil never fails, the light never varies. Night and day the olive trees pour the vital supply. The prophet was told this represented the inflow of the enabling spirit of God.

"It is only as the believer derives his spirit directly from Christ does his light burn. And so God has always been putting before His people superhuman duties, duties beyond all natural strength, that men everywhere might see that it is not by human power.

"Where the philosopher falls down, he can't explain that which is beyond the natural. He can't explain the burning bush of Moses from which God spoke. The modernists would have us believe the pillar of cloud and fire which led Israel was just a little incident of nature, the walls of Jericho fell down by some small natural cause and so of the sun standing still for Joshua.

"God that made everything, can handle everything. His work cannot be measured by a little human yardstick.

"This spirit of demanding to see and understand before believing exists everywhere today. Where would Christ's church be today if it had always waited to see before it acted. No, we are to believe because God says so. We believe God's word because it bears His stamp as a supernatural revelation.

"The success of the church does not depend on brains in the pulpit. Is grace in the human heart a product of evolution? It is the work of the grace of God, the new birth."

A Business Statement that is a Great Human Record

HELPING 19,000,000 PEOPLE

About 19,000,000 people are insured in the Metropolitan—over 10,000,000 under weekly premium policies. The weekly calls of Agents at the policyholders' homes provide a wonderful opportunity for health and welfare work.

The Company has accepted the opportunity and to-day is at the forefront of public health work in America.

14,000,000 VISITS BY TRAINED NURSES.

Free nursing service is given to Industrial policy-holders in 2,800 cities and towns. Trained nurses not only heal the sick but teach right living. About 14,000,000 visits have been made—2,116,875 in 1921 alone. Numerous letters tell of lives saved.

DISCOVERING DISEASE IN TIME

Free medical examinations often disclosing incipient disease in time to cure it, are granted to Ordinary (annual premium) policy-holders, subject to reasonable conditions.

HELPING THE EMPLOYER TO HELP

Employers insuring their employees under Group policies are advised regarding health conditions and accident prevention, while the employees receive the benefits of nursing service and welfare literature.

238,000,000 PIECES OF LITERATURE

Attractive booklets and pamphlets in great variety, dealing with the important phases of health and disease, and prepared by leading experts, are distributed broadcast. So far, 238,000,000 copies have been distributed—25,000,000 in 1921.

In addition, 18,000,000 copies of The Metropolitan, a health magazine, are issued annually.

A CITY THAT IS WATCHED

In Framingham, Mass., the Metropolitan is leading the way in a great experiment, watched by health authorities throughout the country, to demonstrate what proper municipal health regulation can do. Deaths from tuberculosis have dropped from 121 per 100,000 to 40 per annum.

HOW WAS IT DONE?

Records kept by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company show an extraordinary decrease in the death rate among its Industrial, or weekly premium, policy-holders. Comparing 1921 with 1911, for example, there were 55,000 less deaths in 1921 than there would have been if the 1911 death rate had prevailed.

What brought about the great saving of life?

The general public health movement—progress in medical science and sanitation—other causes, perhaps. But a very great factor has been the tremendous health campaign carried on by the Metropolitan itself. This page tells a part of the story.

FOR THE NATION'S HEALTH

144 health exhibits and emergency hospitals at county fairs last year; 295 "Clean-up" campaigns; agitation by Agents for health legislation; nationwide campaigns against special diseases; sickness and sanitary surveys; a study of municipal health departments; leadership of practically all American research work relating to influenza—these are some instances of the Metropolitan's activity in the interest of public health.

HOMES FOR 17,744 FAMILIES

In the investment of its funds, the Metropolitan is now giving preference to loans which will aid housing. During 1920 and 1921, the Company made and pledged loans of $68,080,017, on new dwellings and new apartment houses, providing homes for 17,744 families.

GREAT DECLINE IN DEATH RATES

The death rate among Industrial policy-holders reached its lowest point in 1921—31.9%, lower than in 1911. The rate from typhoid decreased 71%; tuberculosis, 49%; Bright's disease, nearly 30%; infectious diseases of children nearly 37%. The "Expectation of Life" of white males (reckoned from age 10) increased 4 years.

PUBLIC APPRECIATION

The American people have made the Metropolitan the greatest life insurance company in the world, with $7,005,707,839 insurance in force.

It leads not only in Industrial but in Ordinary. More than half of its business in force is Ordinary—$3,892,267,274—which is more than that of any company in the world.

THE FUTURE

The Metropolitan will continue its endeavor to offer the best there is in life, health and accident insurance, and to save human life. Continued growth will give the Company still greater opportunities to serve the American people in insurance protection and in the conservation of life and health.

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

Chance Here to Enjoy Life Dress as Roamers Do! War of Future in Air Elks Hear Major Morgan

By Gil A. Cowan

How much of life are you enjoying? Southern California holds forth so many good things that we are prone to become blasé.

Indeed, we seek the supernatural here when, if only the “folks back east” had what we have in the mountains, the beaches, the climate, everything, they would wish for no more of this earth.

Being one of the crowd—mostly tourists, too—to enjoy a trip to Mt. Lowe is a doubly fine pleasure for a near-native son. In the first place, the Pacific Electric provides some elegant service to, and from this invigorating spot high above the San Gabriel and San Fernando valleys.

Through beautiful Altadena the regular car lines wind around groves and into canyons where in one the incline cable railroad drags the merry party high onto the side of the mountain. Then the miniature red cars turn and twist about the precipices and over bridges to Ye Alpine tavern, a scene of beauty and a memory forever.

Dyspepsia, rheumatism, worry and the rest seem to disappear like magic and it is a sprightly, hungry group that attacks the viands spread at the Inn. And then, for exercise to settle the meal, a half dozen different trails, giving greater scenic advantages, lead the lovers of the great outdoors far afield.

In the afternoons and evenings there is dancing to be enjoyed by the young people and playgrounds for the kiddies. Cozy nooks for more sedate, opportunities for observation, and other things of interest await those who wish to take advantage of the trip.

It is very advisable for both men and women to wear hiking clothes, the well known knickerbockers and sweaters, or flannel shirts, puttees and substantial shoes when going on a trip such as the one described.

Although one motherly critic from the middle west expressed horror at “girls wearing pants,” they certainly are more sensible than the skirts she wore, for they dragged in the dust, tangled in the brush and made her visit more or less unbearable, considering her frame of mind, to say nothing of her sore slipped feet.

In other words, when Roaming, dress as Roamers do.

Now for another line of thought: Secretary of War Weeks has advised Congress that plans are being worked out to establish an air route to the Panama Canal zone as a measure of national defense. For which Weeks wants a lot of planes, according to our Washington correspondent, J. E. Jones.

When one reads about an airplane flying under a 20-foot bridge in Los Angeles yesterday, when they see the machines soaring overhead, and know what the air service of all nations did during the war, there is no question but what he is right. Any foreign navy can be beaten with trained fliers and bombers and observers.

If you happen ever to meet an American ace, talk with him about the accomplishments of airplanes and you will agree that war of the future will be scientific, ethereal affairs minus much of the mortal combat described in historical fiction.

Tonight the Glendale Elks are going to install their officers. This will be impressive, for it is a patriotic order and instills love for country, respect of law and service in peace or war. Therefore, it is fitting that such a person as Major William T. Morgan services the lodge on “American Citizenship.” Every Elk should hear his message, for the subject is similar to the topic of his address before the Rotary club—and it was more than worth any man's time.

Deaths and Funerals

John Henry Mitchell passed away Sunday, April 2, 1922, at the age of 59 years. He leaves a widow, Susie K. Mr. Mitchell had been a resident of Glendale since October. Funeral services will be held at the parlors of the Jewel City Undertaking company Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment at Grand View cemetery. Rev. W. E. Edmonds will officiate.

MRS. MARGARET D. SEIDEL

Funeral services are being held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Little Church of the Flowers for Mrs. Margaret D. Seidel, who passed away Saturday afternoon, April 1, 1922, at her home, 1233 Viola street. She is survived by her husband, Edward J. Seidel, and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Seidel, all of whom reside at the same address.

Mrs. Seidel was born in Milroy, Pennsylvania, January 29, 1866 and was 56 years of age. She had been a resident of Glendale for the last year and of California for the last nineteen years.

HELLO, EUROPE! IT'S NEW YORK CITY ON THE AIR LINE

Evening News Capitol Correspondent Wonders at Wireless Telephone Progress

By J. E. JONES Special to The Glendale Evening News. WASHINGTON, D. C., April 3.—It is less than two years ago that the American Navy was called upon to prevent our friends, the British, from launching their cables on the Florida coast, thereby tying up for the British all the existing means of communication with Latin-America. One day in January of last year a committee of United States Senators got together and listened to a statement by Owen D. Young, chairman of the Board of Directors of the Radio Corporation of America. In the slang of the street he "told them a thing or two."

As a result of many conferences between government officials and the pioneers who have already made tremendous strides in the development of wireless telephony, Uncle Sam is no longer alarmed about the foreign ownership and control of the cables. For the results of a thorough understanding between the government and the radio corporation spurred the latter to hasten their patriotic efforts and today the United States is moving rapidly forward towards becoming the center of a world system of communications in the operation of which the whims or restrictions of foreign nations cut very little figure.

Hardly Can Believe A few days ago the writer visited "central office" in New York City, where radio messages were passing to and from Great Britain, France, Norway and Germany. Communications were as immediate as between telegraph operators; or as telephone conversation, without any considerable intervening distances. An operator "receiving" a message from Norway suddenly touched a typewriter key and by that simple action notified the Norwegian operator to "stop" until the man in New York could straighten out sheets of paper he was using. Instantly the order was obeyed, and a few seconds later the message from Norway was resumed when the New York operator signified that he was ready.

I saw it, and heard it; and it was explained by a radio official—and still I answered: "Taint so—it can't be done! For how could the hearing ear and the seeing eye" that the Old Testament describes play such tricks on what Byron described as the "magic of the mind?" And can you blame me for expecting a definite answer to the question of my fellow-spectator, who had come from the Chicago stock exchange, when he asked: "How far is it to heaven?" It is a long way—some one observes—for the packers. But Europe isn't far when the land operators at "central office" and the great station at the edge of the ocean span the wave lengths and make possible instantaneous communication between the old and the new world.

Handles Much Business So recently as November 5, 1921, President Harding formally opened the great American Radio Central at Port Jefferson, Long Island. And, today, five months later, American radio communication is handling one-fifth of the messages and volume of business between the two continents. The laying of trans-Atlantic cables, at the time, was considered among the great achievements of the world. But cables need never be "cut" again in order that a victorious Dewey may more effectually carry on his operations.

And the British and the French can no longer boast of their "control" of trans-Atlantic communication. For radio is not particular where it goes, and as usual the Yankees are ahead of the world in making it go everywhere. Today you can walk into "radio central" and they will transmit by land wires and wireless to any part of the world.

Many Press Claims Then Forget Debts Which Are Forgiven "Jesus Christ was very practical in his teaching," declared Rev. Keith Brooks yesterday morning in the council room of the city hall to the large attendance of the Presbyterian Men's Bible class. "He could have revealed great mysteries. Yet, in His preaching He stressed the plain duties of life and laid special emphasis upon those which are most galling to the flesh. "To forgive others should be the delight of truly saved people. Even Christians can incur God's wrath because of a cold, unmerciful spirit. Such a spirit, long fostered, may cause God's pardon to cease to operate. They may lose the consciousness of the removal of their debts and be left in torment of conscience until matters have been made right. "There are many today, even church members, who press their little claims with unsparing severity and forget the debts which have been forgiven them. Where much has been forgiven much is expected. The Christian is to be willing to forgive any number of times. This is a practical matter, for some of us are very mindful of small grievances. "If thy brother shall trespass against thee go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone. If he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother." No long cherished feuds would exist in the church of this world obeyed."

JAPAN TO FOLLOW OTHERS TOKYO, April 1.—According to the Japanese press, Japan has decided to follow the course of the powers in the Geneva conference with reference to recognition of Russia and the signing of a commercial treaty with Russia. The attitude assumed by Russia in the conference will govern Japan's future course, the press stated.

Tufts College Faculty Will Reach 35,000 By Radio

Tufts College, Massachusetts, has the distinction of being the first wireless college in the world. Thirteen members of the faculty have volunteered to give lectures on their subjects and these lectures will reach 35,000 persons as far west as Wisconsin and as far east as Florida. Shown here, left to right, are Dr. Arthur I. Andrews, who will speak on "Changes in Europe"; Prof. Edward H. Rockwell, "The Story of the Bridge Builders"; Dean Gardner C. Anthony, "The Story of Engineering," and Prof. Albert H. Gilmer, "The Modern Drama."

Questions on Radio and Their Answers

Beginning today, The Glendale Evening News will publish Questions and Answers about radio, as the space is available. Following are several selected from many inquiries, addressed to the Radio Editor: Question: How many broadcasting stations are there in the United States that send out concerts, music lectures, weather reports, etc.—A. R. Answer: Latest figures show 80 such stations; many more are in the course of construction, and many more planned.

Question: Where is the highest broadcasting station and what wave length do they send on?—C. A. L. Answer: The government station at Arlington is the highest in North America. It is under the jurisdiction of the navy department and sends a 2500-meter wave length. Arlington is located just outside of Washington, D. C.

Question: Is it possible for the average person knowing little of electricity and nothing of wireless to install a home receiving set so as to be able to enjoy the concerts and the like being sent out from Los Angeles?—L. R. C. Eagle Rock. Answer: Absolutely, yes. We propose to commence shortly to give full and complete instructions, using such simple and ordinary terms that practically anyone will be able to obtain a cheap, practical home set.

Question: Does one have to know the Morse or Continental Telegraph code to obtain the benefits of Radio Telephony?—J. R. H., Verdugo Woodlands. Answer: It is not necessary at all, in fact, no more so than it would be necessary for you to learn the code to hear the latest jazz record played on your own phonograph or talking machine. The knowledge of the code is only necessary in wireless telegraphy, not in wireless telephony, and it is this one thing alone that has taken the country by storm. However, The Glendale Evening News will print the code later this week, so you may hear many private dispatches.

Knocks and Bumps Prove of Big Help to Successful Men "The knocks and bumps we get are the making of us," remarked Rev. Harley G. Preston yesterday morning at the Pacific Avenue Methodist church. "With the Apostle Paul we find that, while he failed at first, he succeeded in a wonderful way later by profiting by his mistakes and the reproofs of his Master. "Peter wanted to be near enough to his Master to know what the end would be but far enough away to avoid danger. When a man is weak and can as yet only follow Christ at a distance, he should avoid all dangerous places and the company of those most likely to prove a snare to him. If Peter had not gone to the high priest's palace and sat down with the servants, he would not have denied his Lord. "In the business world the most successful men are those who have come up through the school of discipline. John D. Rockefeller was asked one time what was one of the secrets of his success. He replied that with him it was in calling about him the greatest and smartest men he could find, taking them into his confidence and getting their counsel."

In the end the things that count are the things you can't count. PARTNERSHIP DISSOLUTION SALE Corsets—Warner, Frolaset and College Girl at the Ladies' Toggery Shop, 133 South Brand boulevard. Adv. 4-3-Gt

RADIO SETS WILL BE INEXPENSIVE, BUT MATERIALS ARE NOW SCARCE

Government's Supply of Surplus Receivers Will Solve Difficulty, Says Evening News Expert Who Investigates

By GEORGE VAN SANDS Radio Editor, The Evening News

Practically every one unfamiliar with radio, who talks to me on the subject, seems to have the impression that a receiving set is going to cost a lot of money, and that only those in the "Rolls Royce" class are going to be able to enjoy the untold benefits of radio, but nothing could be farther from the truth.

In fact, the April number of one of the best radio publications cites the instance of a New York boy, 21 years old, James Leo McLaughlin, by name, who made a receiving set of the so-called crystal detector type, using nothing other than the well-known round box that a popular brand of pancake flour comes in, a few ounces of copper wire, a few brass paper fasteners and paper clips, a pin and a small piece of crystal at a total outlay of exactly 21 cents.

Of course, this did not include the price of the telephone receiver, which, in this instance, cost him $3.

Naturally, this outfit could not be expected to reproduce absolutely perfect, but the fact that this boy won a hundred dollar prize with this machine speaks for itself.

WAY TO SUCCESS IN SCHOOL OF LIFE IS DESCRIBED

Select Your Own Course in 'Education,' Says Pastor Crist in His Sermon

"We should be thankful that we do not have to be ushered into the presence of God without some preparation," declared Rev. C. M. Crist yesterday morning at the First Methodist church.

"If we think of life as we should, we would no longer seek after the things that now take our attention but seek everlasting life.

"I have thought of life as a school. God has made it possible for us to choose our own course. I may take the course of the flesh or the course of the spirit.

"It is not the place in which one dwells, but the spirit that dwells in him that makes him different from others. Only those who recognize that fact and cultivate the fellowship of Christ can succeed in the school of life and develop in the right direction.

"Heaven is within us and to get to Heaven as a place we must have it in our hearts here. It is ours to develop now the things that will stand any test that may be placed upon us.

"Love is the first law of the Christian life. God himself is love. Jesus said: 'Thou shalt love,' but we cannot love because we are commanded to do so. We will never experience divine love unless the spirit of God comes into our hearts.

"I suspect that there never was a time when there were so many accounts for entertainment as the present and yet they are so void of real joy. Real joy comes only with the development of the spiritual side of our nature. Seek after it and you will find it because it is one of the fruits of the spirit.

"If this world is lacking in joy, it is none the less lacking in peace. What unrest there is in the world, the home, the church in everything.

"But peace will never come until it comes through the Prince of Peace. Only so far as He is recognized will peace conferences be a success.

Following the sermon there was a brief address by F. L. Sims of Pasadena on the Near East relief.

Central Methodists to Give 'Colored' Program

The "Colored Folks Ladies' Aid" of the Central Avenue Methodist church will give an entertainment in the social hall of the church Tuesday night, April 4, and will be assisted by some of the "colored" men of the congregation. The program will consist in southern plantation songs and readings. The entertainers will include Mahalia Jorgensen, Rachael Rollins, Rozanne Hoppers, Evalina Tallert, Rastus Johnson, Brother Abraham, Sister Luce, Marandy Easterbrook, Booker T. Washington, Deacon Absalon, Parson Jiggelaw, Linda Jackson, Sally Green, Dinah Cross, Sis Hopkins, Kattie Johnson, Mandy White and Hannah Snowball. The members of the Aid state that there will be fried chicken served as refreshments, and state that there should be no questions asked as to where the chickens were secured.

Miss Josephine Cocke and Mrs. Tisdale are chairmen of the committees in charge of this novel entertainment.

Bible Drill Results in Two Teams Tying

The prayer committee of Society B of the Glendale Presbyterian church, of which Marie Maier is chairman, together with her co-workers, Ethel Campbell, Marjorie Smith, Martha Eilers, Lillian Criswell, Avel Triol, Gail Kennedy and Earl P. Hammond, took charge of the monthly concentration meeting last night.

The room was divided by a tennis net, an equal number being on each side. A short competitive Bible drill was given, resulting in the two sides being tied. The program also included vocal solos by Mrs. Ritts, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Caroline G. Bailey. The members of the society, under the leadership of Sabina Buck, have extended an invitation to all high school and college students to join.

Opening of New Store Declared Big Success

Red, white and blue fire flared from the top of the new Army & Navy Goods store here Saturday night and attracted thousands of theatre-goers and late shoppers for a day which was marked by the most tremendous success reported by any similar establishment in opening new quarters.

In the first hour at noon more than 350 were counted entering the store and by night the stocks were well pulled to pieces. R. W. Miles, who designed and planned the arrangements and did much of the buying, is in bed recuperating from his efforts, but he certainly did his share in fixing up the store before he went "out."

Take Advantage of Daily Opportunity Is Plea of Pastor

"Each prayer, each hour of worship is an opportunity," declared Rev. C. E. Cornell yesterday morning at St. Mark's Episcopal church. "Our days are numbered and each day is an opportunity for helping to right the wrongs that everywhere prevail and for doing good. And, if we do not number our opportunities, a sadder numbering may some day come. If we do not number our blessings and improve them, we may in some day of bitterness and remorse have to number not our blessings but our sins.

"But a modern 'religion' has done away with all that. There need be no more repentance, no more remorse for sin. That ugly thing known as 'sin' has been banished from the world not by the Saviour but by the founder of this new so-called 'religion.' If there had been no sin in the world, Christ had not come; the tragedy of the cross had not been enacted.

"Ah yes, there is sin in the world. Many a man, like David of old, has numbered his sins in the bitterness of his soul and repented in sack cloth and ashes.

"Men may think the final reckoning will not come but no man, no nation—even in this life—escapes the consequences of sin. There is an awful identity between the seed and its fruit. If we sow wheat, we will reap wheat; if we sow tares, we shall reap tares.

"Sin is the great fact that menaces the welfare of man. And Lent emphasizes the presence of sin in the world. If we would save the future and the long hereafter from the misery of remorse, then let us fight against all sin."

Tent Theatre Lowers Price of Admission

"Let the women judge—the men don't count in matters of this kind," says the management of the Tent theatre, Harvard and Orange streets, and reduces the admission for the "fair ones" to 10 cents as a super-inducement for them to see their attraction, "Peg o' My Heart," tonight.

"Peg" is too well known to need laudation in a mention of this nature, but the value of the offering is a burden vested in the presenting company.

The first performance of the two-continent success which brought Oliver Morosco fame and fortune was given last night, and scored tremendously.

As will be seen in the display advertisement it will be noted that the admissions have been radically reduced at the Tent theatre, Manager Babcock feeling he can afford to do this due to the large capacity of the amphitheatre.

Tomorrow night disabled veterans of the world war will be in charge of the show, the play being "The Dummy," with added vaudeville acts and features.

Every night this week there will be a change in play, and at the small prices, the attendance should test the capacity of the canvas playhouse.

SULPHUR IS BEST TO CLEAR UP UGLY, BROKEN OUT SKIN

Any breaking out or skin irritation on face, neck or body is overcome quickest by applying Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation that instantly brings ease from the itching, burning and irritation.

Mentho-Sulphur heals eczema right up, leaving the skin clear and smooth. It seldom fails to relieve the torment or disfigurement. A little jar of Mentho-Sulphur may be obtained at any drug store. It is used like cold cream.—Advertisement.

Everywhere you find people suffering from some form of nervous exhaustion. Hospitals and sanitariums are overflowing with men and women seeking to win back health of body and mind. If you are a victim of the strenuous life, if you can't sleep, if you are on the verge of a nervous breakdown, read here what Mr. P. D. Shade, Schuyler, Pa., says: "Twelve years ago this spring, I had a very severe attack of nerve trouble, and although I was treated by three different doctors, I got very little relief until I tried Dr. A. W. Chase's Tonic Pills. After using these pills a few weeks I could feel a big change in my condition, so continued this treatment for three months. I don't think I ever felt better in my life than I did after using Dr. A. W. Chase's Tonic Pills, and whenever I feel my nerves are getting run down, I use some of these pills. I don't think there is any other nerve medicine that will do what Dr. A. W. Chase's Tonic Pills will." You can buy Dr. A. W. Chase's remedies at all drug stores. PASTOR SAYS SOME PEOPLE GET TOO MUCH PRAISE

Patted on Back Until They Get Shocked When Told, Truth, Speaker States

"The Sinless Saviour" was the subject discussed by Dr. H. C. Funk at the First Lutheran church at the morning service on Passion Sunday. He said in part: "There are those who have sought to reflect on the character of our Lord. They have said that his father was unknown; but we observe that He had no difficulty in recognizing his own father. But the number who would belittle the character and influence of Jesus Christ is so small that there is really no occasion for taking a serious account of them. The common verdict, not only of the great masses of mankind, but also of the most discerning legal minds, is in harmony with that of the Roman procurator who, having examined Him, declared, 'I find no fault in Him.'"

It Makes Difference

"I am sorry to say that we have some wishy-washy Christians who seem to think that it makes no difference whether you pray in the name of Christ or not. I think it does matter. And, let me tell you something more: I do not believe in this pernicious doctrine of the Fatherhood of God and brotherhood of man that some of these people talk about. In our lesson Jesus declares: 'I speak that which I have seen with my Father, and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.' Here it is evident that their fathers were not one and the same person. Again Christ himself denies this teaching when he said: 'Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own; for he is a liar, and the father of it.'"

What Is Matter?

"Now I know that a few people are shocked at the way your pastor puts things sometimes. They say he talks too plain. What is the matter with these folks who are so astounded? Well, I'll tell you. They mean well, but the trouble is, that they have been patted on the back so long, and told what nice people they are, till they are all puffed up about themselves; and when somebody does come along and tell the unvarnished God's truth, it staggers them—they are shocked."

Produces Proof Buick Paint Has Durability

The good-looking brand-new Buick touring car with nickeled radiator shell, nickeled headlights and monogrammed radiator cap belongs to Ray L. Galvin of 1344 North Columbus avenue, salesman for Tanner & Hall, Ltd., 237 South Brand boulevard. He had some time getting the regular enamel off the front of the car, too. Nothing seemed to have much effect on it until it was boiled in lye for about twenty-four hours. Mr. Galvin believes that the resistance of the enamel on his car is good proof of the durability of Buick paint.

DIFFERENT IDEALS DIFFERENT DAYS DRAW SCORN

Why Accept Teachings of Jesus on Sunday and Ridicule Them on Monday?

"Why is it that many who profess to be followers of Jesus value His teachings less than they do musty traditions?" inquired Rev. C. M. Calderwood yesterday morning at the Congregational church. "Many find it less sacrilegious to ignore the teachings of Jesus than to revamp along the lines of the higher idealism the teachings that they received years ago from good and devoted people. "During the past centuries Jesus has been worshiped but not studied. Nine-tenths of the lives of Jesus have been written in the last hundred years. It has not been over thirty years since men began to study His teachings seriously. "Jesus came not to bring peace to many man-made ideas, customs and institutions but the sword. Therefore, the first concern of the Christian should not be the teachings of the church, but the teachings of Jesus. More Adopting Ideals "Orthodoxy has not in the past taught right relations between capital and labor; it has not taught men to settle disputes by arbitration or to recognize the rights of women and children; nor has it laid emphasis upon social responsibility. Orthodoxy has winked at lapses in Christian ethics, but has always been fussy about metaphysical precision. "I believe that today more people than ever before are pressing forward to the ideals of Jesus. It is time that men and women, who profess Christianity, should cease sneering at the teachings and ideals of Jesus. Church people often, when outside the church directly and indirectly repudiate the teachings of Jesus as those of an impractical idealist. Different on Monday "People accept the teachings of Jesus on Sunday and then ridicule them on Monday around a directors' table or in the public and private life. "The teachings of Jesus are not just for church people. His teachings are for men with money and puppers; society women and those doing humble tasks; senators, councilmen, office-seekers, tax-assessors and taxpayers, saints and 'jail birds.' "Jesus believed in His ideals so implicitly that He was willing to die to uphold them. If we believe in them, how much are we willing to show our loyalty to them?"

REV. JOHN E. POUNDS OF HIRAM, OHIO SPEAKS HERE

Talks on 'Wills' at Services at Central Christian Church On Sunday Morning

"Wills" was the subject of Rev. John E. Pounds yesterday morning at the Central Christian church. For sixteen years he has been pastor of a church at Hiram, Ohio, and is now returning there after a visit in Southern California. "Seldom do we hear a sermon upon the Christian's obligation to make a will such as will honor his Lord," declared Rev. Pounds. "Great estates go every day from the dying hands of devout Christians to be dissipated by those who have no claim upon them. "A prominent lawyer of Indiana, one who knew the courts as well as any man of his time, said that enough money had been left by residents of that state, who died without legal heirs and whose property eventually went to the state, eventually to endow Butler college. Looking Into Future "We do not look far enough into the future. Often the money left to dependents will serve its purpose in ten or twenty years. The intelligent way is to place the principal so that when released it will serve the Kingdom. "If those who have children feel that they should give some part of their income to the Lord while they live, should they not give a like portion of their estate to His work after they are gone? There are few persons in possession of any property at all who could not leave ten per cent of their estates to some worthy cause without injustice to their children. For Rich to Decide "Where the estate to be divided is a large one the Lord's share should be large. It is more and more a question in the minds of thoughtful students of our American problems whether young people should be allowed to grow up with the feeling that they will be in control of fortunes so large that work will never be required of them. "Rich men and women should be brought face to face with the question of whether they are meeting fairly their obligation to their children in leaving them to dissipate or misuse money they have not helped to earn."

The latest type of battle plane to be used by Great Britain, weighing nine and one-half tons, will carry machine guns mounted in a kind of gallery.

The Seventh Day' Is T. D. L. Attraction Spectacular Picture at Glendale Tonight

Richard Barthelmess' latest feature, "The Seventh Day," will be the attraction for the last times today at the T. D. & L. theatre. Everybody remembers his previous picture "Tolable David," which proved such an entertaining photoplay and "The Seventh Day" must be classed in the same vein. It is a comedy drama of exceptional merit and tickles one's sides clear through to the end. Barthelmess is one of the screen's finest young actors and, of course, this accounts for a great deal. You will really miss an enjoyable evening's entertainment if you fail to see "The Seventh Day."

In speaking of "Fool's Paradise," Ralph Allan had the following to say: The mere announcement that we are to show a new Cecil B. De Mille production at this theatre Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday should be sufficient to pack the T. D. & L. to capacity at every showing. When we add that this production is "Fool's Paradise" and that the story is as unique as the title, we are convinced that all of Mr. De Mille's admirers will be on hand at the opening showing to welcome it.

What can the motion picture provide in place of stage colour? That is a question largely answered in the spectacular Harley Knowles production of "Carnival," which was recently released by United Artists and is being shown at the Glendale Theatre today and tomorrow.

The devices employed claim chief attention. Here is a story which almost cries aloud for color. To an extent they have supplied color in monochrome. Thus in the night pictures of Venice afloat flares or rockets are seen dropping on the water in red or green sparks, and at the carnival ball, lime lanterns flash now one tint, now another, on the crowd of dancers. But the real substitutes are variants in lighting and that rapidity of movement which is the cinema's monopoly.

The ball episodes, with their animation and brilliance, compel enthusiasm in these respects, while agreeable novelties of the film are views of the stage from behind and of a huge audience in front. As for the illustrative panorama of Venice, it is as good as photography can make it.

A Harold Lloyd comedy, Pathe Review and Urban Movie Chats complete the bill.
